

NEW!

NECK INJURIES

Syed Babar

This practical and accessible handbook introduces the non-specialist surgeon to vital aspects of traumatic injuries.

Babar familiarises the reader with the regional pathology and related clinical facts for such injuries. The book has been written in such a way that it presents an easy format for quick reference. Nearly 200 of the author's hand-drawn diagrams support the text. As these are based on his own direct observations, the accuracy is unfailing, allowing precision in surgical examinations.

Contents

- ◆ Introduction
- ◆ Neck injury
- ◆ General features on incised injuries
- ◆ General features of crush and closed injuries
- ◆ Fire burns
- ◆ Scalds and insect bites
- ◆ Deceleration injuries
- ◆ Traction injuries
- ◆ Vibration and blast injuries
- ◆ Iatrogenic injuries
- ◆ Incidence of vascular injuries
- ◆ General features of vascular injuries
- ◆ Immediate effects of carotid arterial injuries
- ◆ Thyrocervical trunk injuries
- ◆ Vertebral artery injuries
- ◆ External jugular vein injuries
- ◆ Delayed effects of carotid arterial zones of injuries
- ◆ Thoracic duct injuries
- ◆ Sternomastoid and scalene muscular injuries
- ◆ Pleural injuries in the neck
- ◆ Thyroid gland injuries
- ◆ Cranial nerve injuries
- ◆ Cervical spine and spinal cord injuries
- ◆ Brachial plexus injuries
- ◆ Injuries to larynx, trachea and oesophagus
- ◆ Cricothyroidostomy
- ◆ Tracheostomy
- ◆ Laryngeal injuries
- ◆ Tracheal injuries
- ◆ Oesophageal injuries
- ◆ References

Filled with practical advice, this comprehensive yet accessible source of information is invaluable for non-specialist surgeons experiencing neck injuries firsthand.

Syed Babar MBSS, D. Av. Med., FRCS, FICA is a Consultant Vascular Surgeon and has a wealth of experience on this topic and frequently lectures on this and other topics by invitation.

ISBN: 1-85233-637-4.
PUBLISHED: Due October 1999

PRICE: Approx. £49.50
PAGES: 200 Softcover

TO ORDER YOUR COPY, PLEASE COMPLETE
THE ORDER FORM OVERLEAF